

Veteran's Day of Fishing

Join us in giving back

On Wednesday, June 19th, a group of disabled veterans from Northeast Passage will be treated to a day of fishing courtesy of Little Harbour Charitable Foundation (LHCF) and the Wentworth Marina. Led by LHCF board members Ritchie White and Ed Patenaude Jr, the veterans will spend the day fishing, sharing stories and relaxing out on the water and over lunch.

"We try to create a day where veterans with disabilities can enjoy fishing with the same independence as their non-disabled peers," said Paul Holloway, president of LHCF.

This year we have expanded the event to include 35 veterans. We thank the boat captains and mates who volunteered their boats and assistance. "Recreation programs like this help improve the quality of life, health and independence for these disabled veterans," Captain White said. "It's about offering something special to those who sacrificed themselves for their country."

"This is an all volunteer event with no overhead," says Holloway. "All donations go directly to the veterans programs at Northeast Passage. LHCF and Wentworth Marina are honored to be able to offer our facilities and support."
